Our memorandum to the Navy is a routine annual notification of our estimated requirements for reimbursable services during the forthcoming year. I believe your question is primarily concerned with [redacted] I understand that the Comptroller will in due course inform our Congressional committees of the need for the [redacted] and will clear with them our planned use of CA funds (at least in part) for this purpose. Congressional review and/or approval of the other activities involved is not required. All except [redacted] costs were included in our 1982 budget.
